As directed in Utah Code section 20A-7-801, Utah's lieutenant governor hosts a statewide electronic voter information website. Candidates may submit statements of qualifications (up to 200 words) and certain biographical information for inclusion on the website.

Please use this form to submit information. For posting on the 2010 municipal general election website, candidates must submit their information no later than 5:00 p.m., Friday, August 20, 2010.

Submit forms to your municipal recorder or county clerk. Call your county clerk or the Office of the Lieutenant Governor at 1-800-995-VOTE (8683) or 801-538-1041 with any questions.

Name: Scott N. Bradley

Office: United States Senate

District: State-wide

E-mail address: Liberty1787@comcast.net

Website: ScottBradleyforSenate.com

Age: 58

Occupation: Business Owner/Author

Residence: North Logan, Utah

Years at residence: 19

Qualifications:

A Utah native, business owner, author, and lecturer, Scott Bradley has worked tirelessly to serve his state, his community, and his country. From his earliest years he possessed an abiding love of America and her Constitution, which has led him to a lifelong close study of that document and the writings of the American Founding Fathers. With that focus, he obtained a Bachelor of Science, a Masters in Public Administration, and a PhD in Constitutional Law.

He is the Founder and Chairman of the Constitution Commemoration Foundation, an organization which seeks to foster increased understanding and application of the original intent of the Founders of our Constitution.

He is the author of the book and DVD/CD lecture series titled: "To Preserve the Nation," a work intended to illuminate the principles of sound government and the cause of liberty. Scott's life's work, including the book and lecture series, is intended to help raise up statesmen of the caliber of the American founders and restore an understanding of the founding principles that made this nation the freest, most prosperous, most respected, and happiest nation on earth. This intent captures his candidacy.

Scott's past work experience includes management at AT&T, and university administration.
